10 Steps to Better Judicial Writing

This web course develops ten shockingly simple precepts that will revolutionize the way a court writes all in the direction of clarity. Garner works through jurisprudential examples to show how close reasoning works in practice, and how it can best be expressed for the intended readership. It's a shortened version of the live seminar Professor Garner teaches to courts all over the country.

For 90 minutes, Garner walks you through the precise steps of drafting a judicial opinion.
