Better Brief-Writing
Better Contract-Drafting
WITH BRYAN A. GARNER

In court or in a contract, a lawyer's most potent weapons are words. The pen may be mightier, but like a sword, your writing skills must stay sharp. Honing those skills takes practice — and training.

Since founding LawProse in 1991, Bryan A. Garner has trained over 200,000 lawyers and judges. He wrote the book on legal writing. Who better to train you? No wonder LawProse is America's most acclaimed provider of legal-writing CLE.
